Issue: 8 Date: 1st November

The new website www.earlsfield.wandsworth.sch.uk will be launched on Friday and there will be a demo for the children in school so they can come home and tell you all about it! The key areas for parents will be

- * The Twitter feed which will let you know of updates to the site etc
- * Parent's Communication which will have whole school newsletters, dates etc
- * Our Learning which will include year group letters, trip letters and information on each Year group.

We hope you find the new website easy to navigate and more accessible. Pictures of our fabulous Poetry Week superbly organised by Mrs Hare will appear on there immediately!

We have noticed that some book bags have newsletters dating back weeks and clearly unread! Some of the older children could also take greater responsibility in telling you when they have brought things home. From next week, any form of paper, email or website update will take place on Monday and a message left in the A frame all week. Can't do much more than that!

Signing up and returning slips last term was an issue. Deadlines were extended and this caused problems. For the drama clubs Hayley & Miss Mason had to do a lot of running around to make sure they continued. Mrs Morgan Lace & Mrs Jefford worked hard on the Right Respecting School Meeting which was advertised at parents evening, in the newsletter, via email and on the website. Two parents showed and we had two apologies – hard on the staff who were in the bottom hall until 7:30pm and had arranged childcare. From now on we will stick to deadlines, if we have numbers by the deadline great, if not, we will cancel. For trips, if a slip is not returned by the date then there will be no last minute calls.

Nice to see nearly everyone dressed in school uniform last term.

- * Black branded trainers are not part of the school uniform
- * Uniform is often left lying in the playground after school or in the hall at the end of clubs. The children need to take responsibility for this. A T shirt and a pair of trousers were lying in the bottom hall after football club for almost a week!
- * Earrings It has always been, and always will be studs only. In order to avoid any sort of discussion please ensure that any form of hoops are not worn.

Clubs We can't and won't open the gates before clubs finish even if it's raining – the children's safety is my only concern and we need to know who is on site. If you have any issues with uniform or clubs then please direct them towards me.
